Partnership Announcement

Introducing a dynamic partnership between Blend Training and Omniplex Learning.

We're thrilled to unveil an innovative new partnership between Blend Training and Omniplex Learning that will accelerate training and digital transformation like never before.

Blend Training is leveraging their unparalleled expertise in learning technology to become a Gold Partner for Omniplex Learning's cutting-edge digital adoption platform, Omniplex Guide.

As technology evolves, equipping employees to adeptly navigate new systems is more crucial than ever. Omniplex Guide is a game-changer that delivers on-demand, interactive and in-situ guidance, which helps to speed up training and digital transformation. It enables seamless adaptation to software for a dramatically improved user experience.

---

This digital adoption platform will enhance Blend's offering for supporting digital transformation programmes. Combined with their software partnerships and training expertise it will improve client system implementations.

A powerhouse partnership that promises to take learning technologies and implementation success to the next level!
